

Getting Stuck Into Autumn

If you live in the southern hemisphere like me then the trees will be turning orange and flame red all around you.

Take time to note the colours and then knit them into something that will keep you toasty warm.

This colourway uses 20 or 30 different colours that have been joined together and knitted using an entrelac style. It is finished by a simple piping boarder.

To get the pattern sign up to the newsletter.